01 About

Igor Lipnitski

Brand and identity designer with 10 years in agencies and in-house, including two years as Art Director leading a team of seven. I build brand systems: identity, visual language, and the guidelines that keep everything consistent, so a product looks and sounds like itself.

02 Experience

Aiby

May 2023 – Present

Senior Graphic Designer

- Own store presence for ChatOn, one of the company's top-grossing products (AI assistant): icons, screenshots, and a consistent visual system
- Designed 15+ app icons for new product launches; several outperformed previous versions in store A/B tests
- Work directly with ASO and the Design Director on launch strategy for new apps
- Ran a company-wide talk on app icons — history, craft, and how icon design drives store performance — for a non-design audience

Excel Impact

Mar 2022 – Apr 2023

Senior Web Graphic Designer

- Led the visual rebrand of an insurance marketing company: logo, color system, typography, website, and presentation templates
- Built brand guidelines in Figma and Canva with linked asset libraries, enabling marketing and sales to produce on-brand materials without a designer
- Executive presentations designed for industry events drew inbound requests for the studio behind the work — including from Google staff at a US conference
- Rebrand strengthened market and employer positioning, noted internally as a factor in hiring

Slon Media

Jul 2020 – Mar 2022

Art Director

- Joined to art-direct video and advertising creative; expanded the studio into web design and branding, building those practices from scratch
- Led a 7-person team; hired and onboarded 3–4 designers for the new branding and web work
- Ran 5 concurrent client projects; clients included PandaDoc, Polkadot, Parimatch, and Playrix
- Built the studio's creative process: task framing, design review, and shared standards
- Worked directly with founders and clients on creative direction and scope

Wargaming

Dec 2015 – Aug 2019

Senior Graphic Designer

- Created the brand identity for the World of Tanks Blitz YouTube channel, still in use today across a channel of 1M+ subscribers
- Designed key visuals for Gamescom, including large-format banners for the show floor
- Art-directed photo shoots and produced campaign graphics across marketing and community channels
